Development Teams – Mini-Camp

Description

In our continuing effort to meet the needs and desires of our loyal D-Team members we are offering special camps designed to fit times during the season that your child has more time off and wants to be on the hill. These camps are separate from the regular D-team program but only open to members. This is an opportunity for kids already involved in Heavenly's developmental programs to add to their experience at a reasonable price for consecutive days during a period when most of our D-team participants are out of school and parents are looking for activities to keep them engaged. This program is open to both D-team and Meteors members. Please sign up at the season pass office.

- December 17-20, 2012
- February 20-22, 2013

    - Deadline – December 16, 2012
